THE HONOURABLE SRI JUSTICE C.V. RAMULU

WRIT PETITION NO.947 OF 2005

ORDER:

It appears, a review petition filed by the petitioner-firm is pending before the respondent. While so, it is the grievance of the petitioner-firm that the respondent reserved the said review petition for orders, without giving an opportunity to it to adduce evidence and argue the matter. Therefore, it seeks a direction to the respondent to reopen the matter and give an opportunity to it to adduce evidence and argue the matter.

The learned counsel appearing for the respondent states that for six times, the petitioner failed to produce the record and, therefore, there was no other go for the respondent except to reserve the matter for orders.

There is no necessity of going into all the details.

While admitting the writ petition on 28.01.2005, this Court passed an interim order in W.P.M.P.No.1248 of 2005 granting stay of all further proceedings as prayed for.

Since the writ petition is pending for the last two years and an interim stay was granted, I deem it appropriate to direct the respondent to give one more opportunity to the petitioner-firm for adducing evidence etc, by fixing a date and serving a notice on the petitioner-firm intimating that date, and decide the matter finally after hearing it.

With the above direction, the writ petition is disposed of. There shall be no order as to costs.
